What and Why?

- The Church gives us guidelines on how music should be used in the liturgy. The goal: to sing the Mass, not just sing at the Mass.
- This year, the Church celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Church's Instruction on Music in the Liturgy that followed the Second Vatican Council.
- Come and learn what Vatican II instructed about music in the liturgy!
- Once we know the vision of the Church about music, we can find practical ways to strive for it in our parishes according to our best ability and resources.

Speakers:

- Fr. Daniel Rayer, Chair, Diocese of Lincoln Liturgical Commission
- Amy Flamminio, Cathedral Choir Director
- Jessica Ligon, Cathedral School Music Teacher

Find out:

- What should be sung at Mass?
- What is “sacred music?”
- How do we keep active participation in the Mass?
- Does the Church still want some Latin?
- What about my favorite hymns and songs?
- ...learn the answers to these and more!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION ... The church slowly developed customs of reserving some portion of the eucharistic sacrifice for the sake of the dying. Today's custom of placing this portion in a tabernacle for prayer and adoration by the faithful cannot be traced back much beyond the year 1,000, much to almost everyone's surprise. There is simply no historical evidence of the Blessed Sacrament being present in a church for the purpose of having the faithful visit it or pray before it earlier in the church's history. People did visit, of course, but the center of their attention was the altar, symbol of Christ's sacrifice and the touchpoint between heaven and earth. Shrines and devotional altars abounded in medieval churches, but anything we might describe as a Blessed Sacrament chapel would be hard to find.

Amazingly, the Eucharist was first kept in private houses for the purpose of Holy Communion at home. As for church, the custom gradually developed of suspending a vessel shaped like a dove somewhere in the church, often over the altar. In the hovering bird, a few hosts, enough to satisfy the pastoral needs of the dying, would be secreted. The priest would lower the dove on a pulley as needed, but it wasn't a focus of devotion by visitors to the church. It was simply a way of reassuring bishops who were nervous about safeguarding the Eucharist. The dove solution caught on in England and France after Crusaders came in contact with the custom in their travels in the Orthodox East. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CHILDREN OF THE LIGHT ... The future king, David, in today's first reading, is an example of a type of character present throughout the Hebrew scriptures. He is the child born out of place (not the eldest or most favored) who ends up receiving the promise of the covenant. The spirit of God's anointing rushes upon him. In this way, he is similar to the man born blind from today's Gospel. David's family and the blind man's community did not expect the miraculous grace of God's love to work through them. Perhaps they, too, were "blinded" by the expectations and assumptions of those around them. Yet, after being touched by God, they both came to "see" the presence of God's will for them. Both became messengers of God's will. That same Spirit of God's anointing rushed upon us at our baptism; we were given a candle as a sign of our membership in the Body of Christ, the Light from Light. Our vocation, then, is to fulfill that enlightenment, that anointing, as Ephesians tells us, by living as "children of the light." Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

LIGHT AND SHADOW ... In faith there is enough light for those who want to believe and enough shadows to blind those who don't. —Blaise Pascal

APRIL 1 ... This is the day upon which we are reminded of what we are on the other three hundred and sixty-four. —Mark Twain
