Although the Eucharist appears to be simple bread and wine, it is actually the "source and summit" of the Christian life. Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist explores the truth and beauty of Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist, from its origins in Sacred Scripture, to its profound role in the life of the Church and its members. It is the crescendo of the entire story of salvation.

Pro-Life Corner ...

"The last thing I gave up (prescribing) was contraception. I discovered remarkable things ... Journal articles warned about pill users having a higher rate of large, life-threatening blood clots ... Hypertension was more common ... A number of studies reported an increase in heart attacks and strokes, especially with higher-dose pills. There was an increased risk of adenocarcinoma ... Benign liver tumors were more common as were harmful metabolic effects for people such as diabetics. These problems were real – and there were many others and with other methods as well." Marie Anderson, M.D. (from "Breaking Through" by Helen Alvare)

Praise the Holy Trinity ... Some truths, like the very existence of God, can be known by human reason alone. Other truths, like the fact that God is One in Three Persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – can only be known if God reveals them to us. We could never conclude on our own that God is a Trinity. Today's Feast is not only an opportunity for thanking God for telling us more about Himself. It is an occasion to take courage as we strive for deeper unity within the human family. God reveals himself to us in order to make us more like himself – not just as individuals, but as families, nations, and an international community. We grow in unity as we give ourselves away to one another, just as the Father, Son, & Holy Spirit give themselves to each other completely.

BE INVOLVED! ... Someone once called a Priest to say he wanted to become a member. But, he went on to explain that he did not want to attend Mass every week, study the Bible, visit the sick, be a Lector, Acolyte, Organist, Usher, or Teacher. The Priest commended him for his desire to be a member of the Church, but told him the church he sought was located in another section of town. The man took the directions and hung up. When he arrived at that address, the man came face to face with the logical result of his own apathetic attitude. There stood an abandoned church building boarded up and ready for demolition!

DON'T EVER GIVE UP! ... Life's greatest blessings come to those who refuse to give up. Eternal rewards come to those who "overcome!"

Victory has never come to the one who refuses to bow to discouragement. Satan always tries to discourage. It is his favorite tool.

One of the "failingest" men who ever lived was always trying experiments that were unsuccessful. Yet we never think of Thomas Edison as a failure.

Babe Ruth struck out 1,330 times, a record in futility unapproached by any other player in the history of baseball. But that isn't what we remember about Babe Ruth.

People would feel a lot less sensitive about failure if they remembered that it just doesn't matter except as a guidepost for oneself. Success is a bright sun that obscures and makes ridiculously unimportant all the little shadow-flecks of failure.

Momentary failure can be used as a millstone or a milestone, depending upon the person.

Pause, examine self, meditate, pray, reconsider -- but, as you live for Jesus and something discourages you, don't give up! -- David L. Arnold, A Reflection of the Son

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION ... One of the great treasures of the Eastern tradition is the icon of the Holy Trinity created by the Russian iconographer Andrei Rublev in the 1400s. The Trinity is symbolized by the three travelers to the tent of Abraham and Sarah. They are seated at a table blessing a cup of wine, under the oak of Mamre. If you look closely, you will see a sacrificed calf in the chalice, reminding the viewer of the cross. The table, prepared for eating and tilted toward the viewer, is an invitation to the Eucharist. From left to right, each figure is keyed to a person of the Trinity. Like all icons, this image is theology in art. The persons are equal in proportion and dignity, they all carry staffs to symbolize their power, and are shown with golden wings and halos. Today, the best place to see Rublev's work is the Holy Trinity Cathedral, at the heart of the vast Holy Trinity monastery about an hour from Moscow. After decades of persecution, it is now once again a living monastery, a world heritage site, and the spiritual home of Russian Orthodoxy. A Google visit is highly recommended today! —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR FAITH ... Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today's solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

RICHES ... Of what use are riches in eternity? —St. Aloysius Gonzaga

BURSTING THROUGH ... Nature is too thin a screen; the glory of the omnipresent God bursts through everywhere. —Ralph Waldo Emerson
