For more information call Ed at 534-9211.

Cardinal Bernardin on Life ... “Not all values, however, are of equal weight. Some are more fundamental than others. I wish to emphasize that no earthly value is more fundamental than human life itself. Human life is the condition for enjoying freedom and all other values. Consequently, if one must choose between protecting or serving lesser human values that depend upon life for their existence and life itself, human life must take precedence. Today the recognition of human life as a fundamental value is threatened. Nowhere is this clearer than in the case of elective abortion.” (Cardinal Joseph Bernardin, “Deciding for Life,” October 1, 1989).

PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD ... “It is a holy & pious thought to pray for the dead.” (2 Macc 12:45). One of the corporal works of mercy is to pray for the dead. Those persons whom we have loved during their life here on earth, we should still remember to pray for after they have died. The best prayer of all is the Mass. Envelopes are available at the Bulletin Board in the Narthex to request Masses to be offered for the repose of the soul of any of your loved ones. The usual Mass stipend is $10.00. Simply write the name of the deceased person on the envelope and your name and enclose $10.00. If you write a check, please make it payable to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church and write “Mass Stipend” in the memo. The Mass intentions are listed in the Bulletin. Pray for the dead!

Sr. Mary Brigid was born in Brooklyn, NY and moved to Colorado in the 6th grade. She has degrees in Agronomy and Bioagricultural Sciences. She was briefly a farmer’s wife, which was not her vocation and went on to a career as a research scientist and business development in biotechnology and pharmaceutical industries. She traveled globally but decades later felt a calling that first tugged on her as a teenager ... the religious life. She first entered as an Augustinian Sister in 2012 but discerned out to enter consecrated life in Steubenville, OH, where she is Director of Stewardship and Development with the Diocese of Steubenville. Reservations Required. Send $15.00 check or money order to Julie Sestak, Box 142, Madrid, NE 69150, 308-326-4475, jsestak1971@yahoo.com

Pumpkin Festival Follow-up Meeting ... will be in a week or so ... the Committee would like at least one member from each of the Food Booths and other booths to be present for the meeting as we make plans for our next Pumpkin Festival, suggestions are good.

FROM FR. MARK SEIKER:

Thanksgiving ... in 1½ weeks, we celebrate Thanksgiving. The word “Eucharist” means “Thanksgiving”. Every time we are present at Mass, we are expressing our thanks to the Father for the gift of the Body, Blood, Soul, & Divinity of His Son Jesus in the Eucharist. So, every day that we are at Mass is Thanksgiving Day in a sense.

Thanksgiving Masses ... there will be a 7:30pm Thanksgiving Mass on Wednesday evening and a 9:00am Mass on Thanksgiving Day. This year, you do NOT NEED to bring a Pie ... we have Donated Pumpkin Pies. Come & join in a Parish get-together after the 7:30pm Wed. Mass. PIES, Drinks & home made ice cream provided. Thank the Lord with your fellow parishioners.

CONTEMPLATIVE SISTERS (Pink Sisters & Carmelite Sisters) COLLECTION ... For over forty-four years now, our Diocese has been blessed to have a Religious Community of Sisters who spend the greatest part of their day before the Blessed Sacrament in their Chapel, praying for us. This community is affectionately known as the Pink Sisters, since the color of their religious habit is pink! It has been a custom in our Diocese to express our thanks to the Pink Sisters by taking up a special collection on Thanksgiving Day for the Pink Sisters. In the last seventeen years, our Diocese has been blessed with another contemplative community of religious Sisters, the Carmelites, whose Convent is near Valparaiso. Please help to financially support both these communities who are spiritually supporting us with their prayers!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION ... We had sixteen hundred years' experience with one Eucharistic Prayer in our repertoire, and the liturgical reforms of the Council of Trent shaped the way we worshiped for four hundred years. In the last years of the Tridentine Mass, the early 1960s, we tended to see children as miniature adults. Fully rooted in the Sunday assembly by the decision of Pope Saint Pius X to push Communion back to the age of seven or so from the standard age of twelve to fourteen years during the early 1900s, children were still more tolerated than acknowledged. The Mass was in Latin, and by the 1960s the people had begun to regain their voices in the "dialogue Mass," so the focus was on training little children to recite or sing in Latin.

The new attention to the experience of children, their ability to enter into ritual, their spontaneity, their ability to grasp key concepts in faith, felt "untraditional." Yet we can trace in our tradition the ways in which children have long been given a special place in the assembly. From earliest times, boys have served in choirs and certain ministries in monasteries and in parish churches. Girls were sometimes entrusted to nuns, learning liturgical chants and the arts. Yet, in our day, the formation of a Lectionary for children and Eucharistic Prayers suited to them are truly tremendous breakthroughs in our treasury of prayer. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

WISDOM ... We consider wisdom today. The first reading from the book of Wisdom presents this precious gift as a feminine spirit, a very desirable virtue sought by many and graciously present to all who seek her. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable to illustrate wisdom in a practical, measurable way. The wise will conserve their resources, use them prudently, and mark the passing of time. The foolish, on the other hand, not planning ahead, will be in the dark. Both of these readings tell us how accessible wisdom is to all who simply and honestly seek it.

Paul's words to the Thessalonians are not about wisdom, but describe one result of true wisdom: To the wise person of faith even death holds no terror. Our faith in Jesus' resurrection tells us we will all one day rise to new life in Christ. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

I CAN DO ANYTHING ... I have started houses with no more than the price of a loaf of bread and prayers, for with him who comforts me, I can do anything. —Frances Xavier Cabrini

THE GAP ... It's interesting that there is such a huge gap between advice and help. —Anonymous

Pray for our Seminarians: at St. Gregory the Great Seminary; at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary; at Mount St. Mary Seminary. Pray for the Priests teaching in the Seminary and the Formation faculty and the staff.
