2. Precursillo and Three Days

Upcoming Three Day Weekends are scheduled to be held at Sacred Heart Parish in Hebron on the following dates:

- Men’s February 27-March 2, 2014
- Women’s March 20-23, 2014

In Bishop Conley’s article, “The Conclusion of the Year of Faith,” from the November 22, 2013, Southern Nebraska Register, he refers to Pope Francis’ message to the North and South American bishops who were meeting in Mexico City to discuss the new evangelization: “You have been converted into disciples of the Lord. And every disciple is at the same time a missionary.” Bishop Conley went on to say to all of us in the Lincoln Diocese, “... We’re made to go beyond ourselves. We’re Christians, and therefore missionaries. Our mission is simple: we’re to bring Jesus Christ to those who suffer without his love, his mercy, and without his peace. As the Year of Faith ends, all of us must ask whether we really are missionaries – whether we preach Christ, crucified and resurrected, to the world.” Later in the article, he commented: “It is easy to spend time among those who wish to be disciples of Christ. To become complacent in patterns of Catholic culture and life which can be comforting, but exclusionary. It's easier, for all of us, to spend our time with those who think as we do, and act as we do. It is much more difficult to leave the comfortable, the familiar, and the ordinary to pursue the periphery. We're scared, sometimes. And Satan convinces us that we can preach the Gospel without ever mentioning Jesus Christ. We hope that our piety, or our smile, or our kind word, will point to Jesus Christ by itself. Christians should always be kind. But the truth is that we cannot preach the Gospel without proclaiming Jesus Christ by name." Later, Bishop Conley again quotes Pope Francis as saying that "the treasure of faith is not for personal use. It is to be given, to be spread, and thus it will grow." Bishop Conley ended his article saying, "To be disciples is to make known the name of Jesus. Let all of us make him known throughout the world."

The comments by both Pope Francis and Bishop Conley speak exactly to the work of Cursillo – in the Precursillo, to make a friend, be a friend, and bring your friend to Christ; in the Cursillo (Three Day Weekend), which is the mechanism (bridge) by which candidates experience the three encounters – with self, then Christ, and finally others; and the Postcursillo, which is the Precursillo for those with whom we are making friends, when we not only work to bring our friends to Christ, but where we also continue to walk with the new cursillistas in order that they might truly become missionaries in their own right with the encouragement/support of fellow cursillistas through Group Reunion and Ultreya. Cursillo is all about the new evangelization ... if we will only live it.

Living Cursillo means that we always and everywhere work to build God's Kingdom ... wherever we are and whatever we're doing ... it means that we're ALWAYS missionaries. Your environment at any point in time/space is that moveable square meter that moves as you move; in other words, your environment is that place and set of circumstances in which you find yourself at each particular moment of each day. It's in your moveable square meter that you're called to be a missionary. You need to introduce the Christ who is with you in your moveable square meter to all those with whom you come into contact. Remember that the work of the Precursillo is often very slow and time-consuming (it can literally take years) ... but if you never make that first effort, how will others come to know Christ as you do ... as a Friend? And keep in mind as well that the Precursillo isn't just about inviting someone to a Cursillo Weekend ... it's about bringing your friend to CHRIST. We are missionaries for Christ, not necessarily missionaries for Cursillo. We should especially be alert for the "far away" (those who don't know God well or don't know Him at all) – these are the ones Bishop Conley refers to as being on the periphery.

There is a lot to do in all three phases of the Cursillo. But the key is to begin the work, always in a spirit of Palanca (talking to God about your friend before talking to your friend about God), and with a mind/heart/will set "to the highest level" to persevere in winning this person for Christ. May we ALL accept our Baptismal commitment to live the Gospel and do our part in building up the Body of Christ!! May we all accept our role as missionaries!! Ask a friend who has indicated to you that he/she wants to deepen his/her faith to consider Cursillo ... what an opportunity to evangelize!! Invite your friend to your Group Reunion and/or Ultreya to let them experience Cursillo, even before the Weekend. And you don't have to wait until right before the Weekends to make and be friends, and in fact, the friendship shouldn't be centered on getting the person to a Cursillo Weekend. If/when your friend does, however, express an interest in Cursillo, have him/her complete the registration form ... continue to encourage your friend's "yes" ... be a missionary in helping your friend encounter Christ.

3. Postcursillo

◆ Region VI Spring Encounter (April 25-27)

The Region VI Spring Encounter will be hosted by the Fargo, ND Diocese on April 25-27, 2014 at Hankinson, ND. The registration form (yellow) is included in this newsletter. As always, there will be three rollos given by laypersons and one spiritual rollo. There will also be a Friday evening meditation, followed by Confession, plus Mass and an Ultreya on Saturday ... and of course, food.

◆ Upcoming Cursillo de Cursillos (CDC's) in Region VI:

- February 20-23, 2014 – Moberly, Missouri (Diocese of Jefferson City, MO). The Weekend starts with registration at 5:30PM and should conclude around 4:00PM Sunday. If interested or need more information, please contact Terrie Foltz at terrie.foltz@gmail.com.
- March 20-23, 2014 – Wichita, KS Diocese (in Wichita, KS). Same starting and ending times as above. If interested or need more information, please contact Sherry Watson at luv2Kamp@cablone.net. Maximum of 50 can attend; 27 have registered.

In order to provide an intensive knowledge of the foundational charism, namely the mentality, the essence, the methodology, the strategy, and the purpose of the Cursillo Movement, a special weekend called "Cursillo de Cursillos" was developed by Eduardo Bonnin. It is a working three-day weekend that helps a cursillista know the Movement well in order to live it faithfully and efficiently.

4. School of Leaders (SOL)

- ◆ The December SOL, which is this coming Saturday (Dec. 14, 2013), will be held simultaneously from 9:00am-12:00pm in three different locations, with the three groups connected via technology (using the Go To Meeting internet connection). Cursillistas participating in the SOL will gather at one of three different locations – St. Joseph Parish Hall in Beatrice, St. Ann Parish Hall in Doniphan, or St. Patrick rectory basement in McCook. The SOL will kick off with an opening prayer with all locations connected, followed by a Leaders Group Reunion with cursillistas grouping with others in their respective locations (not over the internet). Following the reunion, cursillistas in the three locations will again join together on the internet for the other elements of SOL (a Technique Talk, a Doctrinal Talk, and a work session). The SOL will conclude with shared prayer (three locations joined).

For this SOL, the Technique Talk will focus on "The Three Day Cursillo." The Doctrine Talk will continue to be from Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI's Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation Verbum Domini ("On the Word of God in the Life and Mission of the Church"); the sub-topic this time being "The Word of God and Culture." During the work session, the group will review the newly issued "Articles of Operation for the United States Cursillo Movement," which were recently approved and distributed to all dioceses. The new Articles of Operation is a combination of three previously-used documents: (1) Articles of Operation for the United States Cursillo Movement; (2) National Policy for Cursillo Movements in the United States of America; and (3) Regional Structure Guidelines.

With issuance of the new document, it is important for the Lincoln Diocese to understand the contents in order for us to be faithful to the Movement.

- ◆ Future SOL (open to ALL cursillistas):
  - January 11, 2014 – The SOL will again gather in three different locations – St. Joseph Parish Hall in Beatrice, St. Ann Parish Hall in Doniphan, or St. Patrick rectory basement in McCook, and follow the format used for the December SOL. Note that a Secretariat meeting would normally have been held on this date (since it’s an odd-numbered month); however, the Winter/Spring Cursillo activities needed to be juggled for Three Day Weekends and other scheduled events/holy days.
  - April 12, 2014 – This SOL will be held at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in Lincoln. There will be more details in the March/April Newsletter.

From the Lay Director

The world today is in a spiritual crisis similar to many periods of history. During such times in the past, God has raised up saints and inspired the birth of movements and religious communities to combat the decline of faithful Catholics. Blessed (soon to be Saint) John Paul II called for a New Evangelization to reverse the trend of shrinking religious practice. This call was continued by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, and has become part of the mission of Pope Francis. Our baptism calls us to that same mission – evangelize and bring Christ to others. We are part of this New Evangelization and God has given each of us a special role to revitalize and awaken the faith in others. Cursillo is also a part of the New Evangelization – even though it started 70 years ago in a place and time where, like today, there was a great need to combat religious apathy.

In Cursillo, God calls us to work within our environments – wherever we are and specifically whoever we are with – to bring the Good News to others. We have been given a great gift through the Cursillo, but unfortunately it is often put on a shelf somewhere ... placed out of sight. We have to continually look honestly at ourselves and ask “What am I doing with God’s gift? Am I bringing Him into my environments?” We know, if we remember living our Three Day Cursillo, that we can do this. Every day we must experience metanoia anew – be re-converted and become re-committed. Are we ever there? We are only there when our work here on earth is complete and we stand before God. But until then, we, as individuals and as a community, have a call from God to use the talents He gave us. He asks that we live each and every moment in faith ... we trust that God is with us each and every step of the way. We have heard it said many times how great it would be if someone were to look for us and find Jesus instead.

Advent has begun. Our pastor called us to use this time in a way similar to Lent – use it to renew and grow. We will soon celebrate the birthday of our Lord Jesus, and like the three kings, we should come to Him with gifts – gifts of faith, love, forgiveness, commitment, and so on. When I was in grade school, I was in a boys’ choir (6th, 7th, and 8th graders). “The Little Drummer Boy” was a favorite of mine. I would envision myself coming to see the baby Jesus, but have nothing to give except myself and whatever talent He gave me. I want to be there again, going quickly to see the newborn King. May you all be blessed this season and be like little children again, standing in awe before the newborn Savior. May God bless you as you continue to live your Advent commitments in the Christmas season and new year!

De Colores!! John Springer

From the Spiritual Advisor

The Year of Faith, which we have been journeying through and living the past 13-1/2 months ended on November 24, 2013, and we began a new liturgical year with the First Sunday of Advent on December 1, 2013. Though the Year of Faith is officially concluded, and we are now living in a new liturgical year, this ending and beginning is an opportunity for us to reflect on how we live our spiritual lives.

Our faith is a precious gift given to us by God, and He asks us to use His gifts and to practice our faith. We are to be disciples (students, learners) and followers of Christ. We do this not just because we received the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, or even because we lived a Three Day Cursillo Weekend, but because we want to daily say Yes to Jesus, and to continually grow closer to Him, and help others around us to deepen their own relationship and friendship with Jesus.

Often, the world around us wants to lead us to think of ourselves as just individuals, and encourages us to think only of ourselves. Jesus calls us friends and He wants all of His friends to be friends with each other and to share our faith and the message of the Gospel with all of the other persons we meet. Often we are hesitant to do this and there are temptations that try to separate from God and from each other.

The reflection in the Magnificat Year of Faith Companion for November 7, 2013 by Father Jacob Restruck, O.P. addressed many of these issues, and I quote it here:

“Be sober and vigilant. Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion looking for [someone] to devour. Resist him, steadfast in faith, knowing that your fellow believers throughout the world undergo the same sufferings.” (1 Pt 5:8-9)

Sister Mary Baruch lived in a cloistered monastery all her life. On her Fiftieth Jubilee she was asked what sustained her faith all these years. She said: “Realizing that my life was not about me. We don’t engage in any active works, but we realize that we belong to the Mystical Body of Christ. We have temptations, discouragement, trials of faith. I’ve stood in the cloister hearing the devil whisper in my ear: ‘What if it’s not all true!’ I’ve wrestled with resentment and envy over what other sisters have. I had to learn to keep my poor mind from entertaining impure thoughts and desires. I have to keep watch over food and drink and over-work. It’s like the devil takes a quiet stroll around the cloister waiting to attack us in moments of weakness. I know I’m just like others who must endure greater temptations and sufferings than I. But I also know I’m not alone. We’re all making the journey to God, alone, together.”

Sister Mary Baruch told me she copied out these words of Saint Peter and taped it by her bed. “It reminded me to put the ‘Big Cat’ out every night.”

I encourage you to remember that we are journeying to God, alone, together. I encourage you to continue to meet with your friends in your weekly Group Reunion and to participate monthly in Ultreya. I also encourage you to continue to grow in your faith through balancing your piety, study, and action, and living your lives in such a way that you invite others around you to better know Jesus. Finally, I encourage you to “put the ‘Big Cat’ out every night”.

O Divine Babe of Bethlehem, come and take birth in our Hearts!
