Welcome New Fourth Dayers (March 2012, St. John Nepomucene Parish, Weston)

Welcome to the 4th Day!  We welcome Amy Chelewski, Tatiana Davila, Jon Dorn, Marianne Guenther, Tracy Guy, Jessica Harvey, Cathy Jacobsen, Ashton Kotas, Jordan Lintt, Doug Meyers, Greg Vandenberg, and Nancy Vasa to the Fourth Day!! It is in sharing with your brothers and sisters in Christ about your attempts to grow (in baby steps, at first) in piety, study, and action that you will persevere and progress in the spiritual life ... that’s where you will find “total security”!! Remember that Christ is counting on you, and you said that you would count on Him. He gave you the gift of the Cursillo Method of Group Reunion and Ultreya to help you in the Fourth Day ... these tools will help you live each day in a more focused way ... that focus being Christ.

Ultreya ... Onward!!

Comments from New Fourth Dayers

(Jordan Lintt, Doane College (hometown: Seward, NE)

Before Cursillo, I was anxious to be with other believers much like myself in the pursuit of God’s own heart and the adornment of my beloved brother Jesus. I received what I hoped for and much more. I felt my spirit inside of me soaring and on fire; I was so excited to bring my wisdom and knowledge given to me by the guidance of Cursillo, by God, to many of my other friends and family. I am a junior attending Doane College in Crete, Nebraska, and am attacked a lot regarding my faith and religion. Cursillo, well God, opened my heart to what I needed to hear in order to be a better servant to Him and to better fulfill my purpose in this short life. I would ask anyone to consider this opportunity to grow in a closer relationship with Our Father and Brother, because when you submit your will to God’s will and when you submit your heart, soul, mind, hands and mouth to Him, He will reveal so much to you; and when a perfect love such as this seeks a relationship with you, why wouldn't you agree to it? Love your sister in Christ, Jordan Maire Lintt

(Marianne Guenther, St. Mary Parish, Lincoln, NE)

Cursillo 2012, my first Cursillo and it was terrific. Spending my weekend this way was very fulfilling and energetic. Being surrounded by Catholic speakers, chapel and meeting new faces was a great adventure. One of the many things I walked away from the weekend with is that where the Tabernacle is, the Divine Presence of Jesus Christ is also. I always knew that before, it just for some reason became clearer to me at around 2AM. While sitting in the chapel having a thoughtful conversation with God, and knowing this was a library, it really struck me that in that Tabernacle is the Divine Presence. Here, now, last minute, the next minute, and so on. So this is what God woke me up for, come spend time with Me, I will quiet your soul. Before leaving, I did request to be woke up at 6:30AM, and made sure I requested “Central Time, please”. De Colores! Marianne Guenther

2. Precursillo/Three Days

The work of Cursillo continues, as we pray for the spiritual success of our Postcursillo and also for Weekends going on around the world (just as they prayed for us).

- ◆ The new Fourth Dayers may not be aware that EACH WEEK cursillistas in our Diocese promise to offer Palanca for Three Day Weekends going on throughout the world. The recent Three Day Weekends in our Diocese are a powerful reminder that Palanca is the lever of the apostles. In particular, cursillistas have agreed to assist at Mass each Friday and offer Holy Communion for the intention of all Cursillo activities taking place throughout the world, and, in addition, to pray an extra decade of the Rosary on Sundays. You are also encouraged to offer additional personal prayers and sacrifices to the spiritual bouquet our Diocese offers to other dioceses.
- ◆ Also included in this Newsletter is a Palanca calendar (pink sheet) for our Diocese. For those new to Cursillo or if you never knew why the Palanca calendar is included with each Newsletter, it contains intentions specific to our Diocese, for our Region (Region VI), and for the Cursillo Movement as a whole. The calendar always includes the Three Day Weekends that will be going on in Region VI, and it also includes other general prayer intentions. We encourage you to keep the calendar in a place you will see it each day and to offer some type of Palanca daily for the suggested intentions or for intentions of your own choosing. "For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in the midst of them" ... Even if there is distance that separates us ... we are united in prayer for common intentions ...
- ◆ During the Three Days, we all learned that if we want to work on Christianizing our world, we must begin right where we are ... we need to study our immediate environments. Cursillo's methodology of "make a friend, be a friend, and bring your friend to Christ" should be a natural part of your everyday life. Who in your environments can become part of the "backbone" that will give structure to living a Christian life? How might you help that person understand how he/she can be an "agent of change" in a particular environment to help it become more influenced by Christ's vision for the world? Friendship is the key ... it is the beginning, middle, and end of what will help bring about change. Remember, Christ is counting on you!! St. Teresa of Jesus (Avila) said: "Christ has no body on earth but yours ... no hands but yours ... no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes through which Christ's compassion for the world is to look out; yours are the feet with which He is to go about doing good; and yours are the hands with which He is to bless us now" ... He IS counting on you!!

4. School of Leaders (SOL)

At the April 14, 2012, SOL (held at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in Lincoln), the two Technique Talks for the English SOL came from the book, Study of the Charism. One discussed Eduardo's writings related to understanding the purpose and essence of Cursillo, and the other provided a clearer understanding of the Precursillo. The two Doctrinal Talks related to the same two topics. The Vietnamese SOL met separately with Joachim Le, the National Vietnamese Language Coordinator. This was his first visit to the Lincoln Diocese, and he spent considerable time with the Vietnamese cursillistas helping them organize Cursillo activities intended to move the Diocese toward holding its first set of Three Day Weekends. We thank him for all that he shared, especially his friendship!! There is now a link on the Lincoln Diocese webpage to the National webpage in Vietnamese.

The next SOL (open to both English and Vietnamese) will be held on June 9, 2012, at St. James Parish in Cortland (see the inside cover of the mailing for more information). For information about the Vietnamese language SOL, please contact Canh Nguyen (402-435-0921) or Juliana Tran (402-436-1998).

From the Spiritual Advisor

We are in the Easter Season. We reflect on our Lord's victory over sin through His death and His victory over death through His resurrection. His resurrection changed everything. Never before had anyone risen from the dead. Our belief in His resurrection from the dead is at the heart of our faith. St. Paul said "... if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins." (1 Cor 15:17)

During this Easter Season, we would do well to reflect on our Lord, on His resurrection, and on our relationship with Him. For three years, during His public ministry, Jesus encountered many people. During the forty days after His resurrection, Jesus appeared to many of these people again. Some of these appearances of the risen Jesus are described in the Gospels. These encounters with the risen Jesus deepened the people's understanding of Jesus and led them to acknowledge and profess that Jesus is God. The risen Lord revealed His presence to them in the Breaking of the Bread and in the Church and told them that He would be with them until the end of time.

In a similar way, we encountered Jesus on our Three Day Weekend. Our encounter with Him deepened our understanding of Him ... our understanding of the Eucharist and of the Church. However, we must continue to encounter our Lord each day of our lives ... each Fourth Day. Like the early Christians, we must reflect on the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. We must gaze upon His face in the Scriptures, in the Eucharist, and in each other.

Perhaps during this Easter Season and during Ordinary Time, we can each strive to encounter our Lord again through our acts of piety and through our study. Then may each of us plan our apostolic action so that we bring Christ to others and others to Christ. May the dismissal of each Mass ("Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord" or "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life") ever serve to remind us that we need to put our encounters with the Lord (through piety and study) into action each day of our lives ... each Fourth Day.

From the Lay Director

A friend of mine was feeling down one day about not be able to provide work opportunities for the staff, as it appeared there was not enough work to avoid layoffs (probably permanent). My friend is a good Christian, faithful, prayerful, often asking for prayers in difficult situations or decisions. I responded that if we do all we can and give it to God and ask for His help, He will insure the best happens (even though it may not seem like it at the time). We cannot know His plan, and it may not be revealed in this life. As Mother Teresa used to say, God does not ask us to be successful, only faithful.

I thought of a meditation in the March Magnificat from Saint Claude de la Colombiere that spoke of that very thing, saying, "God is looking after us and yet we are so full of anxiety! ... If we could see all He sees we would unhesitatingly wish all He wishes." The Saint also paraphrased God, "Let me manage your affairs ... I know what you need better than you ... If I paid heed to what you think you need you would have been hopelessly ruined long ago." Our faith teaches that we should surrender all things to God and put all in His hands. I try to do this every morning, give my day to Him and accept what will happen as His will, with a reason behind it (sometimes that's not easy for me). I copied the meditation for my friend and just asked that he/she be faithful. Many things we will not see until we appear before God and He enlightens us.

Our diocesan Cursillo Weekends just took place in March. As with everything, we put it all in His hands and tried our best to be faithful. There is no limit to what He will do through these Weekends. But we believe, and we know, that He rewards the faithful. I thank Him for all the infinite Graces He poured down on these Weekends, and pray that He blesses all those who live lives faithful to Him and His teachings.

As always, I ask you to please consider coming to the School of Leaders. Cursillo needs you – the Movement needs your enthusiasm, your involvement, your time if you can give it. Cursillo needs us (you and me) to keep it strong in our Diocese. Thank you to all those who contribute in any way. It is your prayers, support, and Palanca that give the Movement life. Note the dates and locations of the School of Leaders and try to come. Call your friends and come together, you will be glad you did. Please continue to pray for the Cursillo Movement, especially in our Diocese. May God bless you! De Colores!!

Topics of Talks

The Technique Talks will come from the “Study of the Charism”. “Study of the Charism” is a compilation of writings from Eduardo Bonnín as published in a series of monthly mailings from the OMCC (worldwide Cursillo organization) Executive Committee from 2008 – 2009. Since the topic covered in each chapter can be studied separately, it’s not a difficulty if you missed discussions of earlier chapters. Eduardo’s writings will give us a better understanding of Cursillo as it was given to Eduardo ... this helps us understand the entire Movement better. You may purchase a copy of the book at SOL for $6.00, or you may download the 80 page-book from the OMCC webpage (<http://www.orgmcc.org/study/index.htm>).

The Doctrinal Talks will continue to relate to topics that will help you grow in your spiritual life.

Please bring the following with you to the SOL (if you have them):

- ◆ BRING YOUR OWN SACK LUNCH (to save on time preparing and cleaning up, etc.)
- ◆ Leaders’ Manual, if you have one (available for purchase at SOL)
