PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD ... "It is a holy & pious thought to pray for the dead." (2 Macc 12:45). One of the corporal works of mercy is to pray for the dead. Those persons whom we have loved during their life here on earth, we should still remember to pray for after they have died. The best prayer of all is the Mass. Envelopes are available at the Bulletin Board in the Narthex to request Masses to be offered for the repose of the soul of any of your loved ones. The usual Mass stipend is $10.00. Simply write the name of the deceased person on the envelope and your name and enclose $10.00. If you write a check, please make the check payable to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church and write "Mass Stipend" in the memo. The Mass intentions are listed in the Bulletin. Pray for the dead!

An indulgence is granted the Christian faithful who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, if only mentally, for the dead. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls in purgatory. This indulgence is a plenary (full) one from Nov. 1 through Nov. 8 & can be gained on each one of these days. On other days of the year this indulgence is a partial one.

An indulgence is the remission of the temporal punishment due to sins that have already been forgiven. An indulgence can be gained by doing certain works of devotion, penance & charity, under conditions that the Church has set down. An indulgence is partial or plenary, as it removes either part or all of the temporal punishment due to sin. An indulgence can be gained for oneself or for souls in punishment due to sin. (CCC 1471) The official list of works & prayers that have an indulgence attached to them, as well as the conditions that must be met, are contained in The Handbook of Indulgences.

Besides the exclusion of all attachment to sin, even venial sin, the requirements for gaining a plenary indulgence are the performance of the indulgenced work and fulfillment of three conditions: sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion, prayer for the pope's intentions. The three conditions may be carried out several days before or after the performance of the prescribed work. But it is more fitting that the communion & the prayer for the pope's intentions take place on the day the work is performed.

On Thursday, Nov. 1, at 1:15pm, we will meet at the North Platte Cemetery (on West Rodeo Road). We will meet at the Flag, and walk around the Cemetery and pray the Rosary for the repose of the souls of our relatives, friends, and parishioners. All are invited!

PRAYER TO ST MONICA ... The Lincoln Diocesan Council of Catholic Women has designated the month of November to the Indianola Deanery Council for prayers to St. Monica. We offer our prayers through St. Monica's intercession for the spiritual and physical safety of our children. Please take time and pray this prayer each day during November. PRAYER TO ST. MONICA

O God, You are the comfort of those who mourn and the savior of all who trust in You. Blessed Monica's loving tears moved You to convert her son, Augustine. Help us who pray to You for the salvation of our sons and daughters, too. May we also grieve for our own sins and win the grace of Your pardon through the intercession of this loving Saint, through Christ our Lord. Amen
St. Monica, Pray For Us!

Where we begin ... "In protecting human life, we must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. We urge Catholics and others to promote laws and social policies that protect human life and promote human dignity to the maximum degree possible. Laws that legitimize abortion, assisted suicide, and euthanasia are profoundly unjust and immoral. We support constitutional protection for unborn human life, as well as legislative efforts to end abortion and euthanasia" (Faithful Citizenship, US Bishops, 2003).

Election Day in Nebraska is approaching! ...

The Nebraska Catholic Conference has an easy-to-use tool to help you be informed and get prepared to hit the ballot box on November 6.

We invited all candidates for the upcoming election to answer 14 questions indicating their support or opposition on important issues facing our state & nation. We also gave them an opportunity to offer comments & a special message to you, the Catholic Voter. Visit our NE Catholic Voter Guide online at <https://www.nebraskacatholicvoter.com/>.

A diocesan-specific guide was recently printed in the October 12 issue of the Southern Nebraska Register.

We hope this is a valuable resource for you as you prepare to vote on Nov. 6 (or before then if you're voting early!). Please call 402-477-7517 with questions. Tom Venzor (Executive Director Nebraska Catholic Conference)

LDCCW SUNDAY ... is THIS Sunday, Oct. 28.

After each Mass this weekend, some of the ladies of the Daughters of Charity will be giving every woman a token of appreciation for all the work you do for our parish. Here is a little explanation about the Altar Society:

- One of the main roles of the Altar Society is to care for the Altar: provide funds to purchase the Altar Breads, the Altar Wine, Altar Candles, sometimes Altar linens or vestments, & other things to help provide what is necessary for Mass & liturgical ceremonies.
- Another important aspect of the Altar Society is to provide an opportunity for the women of the Parish (Deanery & Diocese) to gather together spiritually & socially, as well as to work together.
- Every woman in our Parish is a member of the Altar Society (in our Parish the Altar Society is called the Daughters of Charity) ... (Altar Society is also called PCCW, Parish Council of Catholic Women).
- The Deanery meetings (DCCW: Deanery Council of Catholic Women.) We are in the Indianola Deanery, and the meetings (Spring and Fall) are moved around to each of the Parishes.

The Diocesan meetings (LDCCW) are also moved around to different parishes in the Diocese.

FROM FR. MARK SEIKER:

RCIA Classes ... on Wednesday in Parish Hall, 7:00pm – 9:00pm, will continue until mid-May 2019. It's not too late to join.

Bishop's Appeal for Vocations ... "Gift and Mystery". Three weeks ago (10/07/18), Bishop Conley's letter for the Bishop's Appeal for Vocations was read. It was mentioned that we would have the Appeal AFTER the Pumpkin Festival. This year, the Bishop's Appeal for Vocations will be handled similar to the Charity and Stewardship Appeal, meaning that every family in the Parish has a card which will be available on a table in the Narthex This Weekend. Our Parish Goal is $4,810.00. This is our share of the Diocesan goal of $800,000 which has been established by Bishop Conley. Please support the Bishop's Appeal for Vocations. Unlike CSA which is a Pledge, BAV is a One-Time Donation, NOT a Pledge. If you did NOT donate last year, would you please be able to donate something to the education of our future priests this year? Whether $50.00 or $20.00 or $10.00. No gift is too small. Your gifts and your prayers for our seminarians are much appreciated! Please support the Bishop's Appeal for Vocations.

Fr. Seiker at Priest Study Day ... Seward (Tue, Sep 24). I will leave Tue 8:00am; return for Wed. 5:30pm Mass (5:00pm confessions).

Parish Dinner on Sunday, Nov. 4 ... in the Parish Hall at 12:00pm (Noon). We have some hamburger, brats, chips, beans, pumpkin pie and ice cream (all left over from the Pumpkin Festival). This would be a good time to enjoy each other's company as we enjoy some good food and thank the Lord for His blessings to us. (12:15pm=CCD Students/teachers join us)

For a number of years, we have had a Wednesday 7:30pm Mass (evening before Thanksgiving) and after Mass served pie & ice cream at a social gathering in the Hall. This will replace that Wed. Mass & social.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION ... Today is the feast of the Forty Martyrs of England and Wales, the first representative body of many Catholics who died for their faith between 1535 and 1679 to be beatified or canonized. Almost all of them died at Tyburn, a place of public execution near today's Marble Arch in Hyde Park, London. The first to suffer were Carthusian monks who refused to swear an oath supporting Henry VIII as supreme head of the Church in England, and the last was Saint Oliver Plunkett, the Primate Archbishop of Ireland. The method of execution was particularly vile, since the condemned were hanged and their living bodies quartered to be displayed around London as a horrific warning. Today, the tree-like gallows provides the design of a religious symbol, the canopy over the altar of the martyrs in Tyburn Convent. There, at the heart of the bustling city, a monastic community of women practices contemplative prayer and "spiritual hospitality" in the Benedictine tradition. Oddly, the community is French in origin; it was expelled from France a century ago when France outlawed contemplative monastic life. England, where the laws against Catholicism had been lifted, invited the community in. In gratitude to their new homeland, and in honor of those who gave their lives for the Catholic faith, the nuns came to Tyburn. In the public crypt, coats of arms stand for each of the 350 martyrs. A Web site visit is possible at www.tyburnconvent.org.uk.

THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION... The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble. The Lord's kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people. Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God's love and care for us. "Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves" (Psalm 126:5-6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
