On May 1, 2015, Francisco Salvador, then- president of Cursillo’s worldwide organization, referred to comments made earlier that day by Pope Francis regarding Cursillo: “... the Cursillo Movement presents a proposal for a conversion and a challenge to holiness in normality ... Holiness for men and women, in the simplicity of their daily living testimony ... Being a saint at home, being a saint in the workplace, and being a saint in society ... Being a saint wearing a suit and tie, or a worker’s blue suit. Saint ... everywhere! ... The Cursillo transforms the lives of thousands of men and women, and helps to sanctify the world, evangelizing both the environments and the lives ...” If you would like more info. about Cursillo or the 2019 Weekends, call or email Greg Vandenberg, Men’s Weekend Coordinator (308-530-7587; glvandenberg@charter.net), or Kathy Springer, Women’s Weekend Coordinator (402-826-2699; ks90710@windstream.net). Clear Teaching ... “We need to continue to teach clearly and help other Catholic leaders to teach clearly on our unequivocal commitment to the legal protection of human life from the moment of conception until natural death. Our teaching on human life and dignity should be reflected in our parishes and our educational, health care and human service ministries. We need to do more to persuade all people that human life is precious and human dignity must be defended. This requires more effective dialogue and engagement with all public officials, especially Catholic public officials. We welcome conversation initiated by political leaders themselves.” -“Catholics in Political Life,” statement of United States Catholic Bishops, 06/18/04

FROM FR. MARK SEIKER:

The new footings beside the existing footings will be dug soon (maybe this week). The remainder of the structure around the sign will be installed soon ... as materials are completed and available.

Cursillo National Spiritual Advisor ... in June 2019, the Cursillo National Secretariat elected me to serve a three year term as the National Spiritual Advisor which begins Oct. 1, 2019.

Looking Back and Moving Forward

On Friday, Nov. 16, 2007, one of the Parish “dreams” over the years became a reality, when 300 ft of Echo Drive was “blacktopped”. Fr. Seiker wrote in the Bulletin: “A couple of weeks ago when the city was paving Walker Road, we approached the city again to see if the price might be lower since the crew was “right here”. After many discussions with a number of officials and a couple of contractors, we were offered a bid of $15,000.00 for a 7” thick blacktop road, which met all of the specifications of the city. We received verbal approval from Bishop Bruskewitz to proceed with the written Corporate resolution. There were only a few days available that the project could have been completed at this price. It is projected that crude oil prices will continue to rise and thus the price of the “blacktop” would be significantly higher next year. I think it is also important to mention that engineers from the City of North Platte have been involved with the entire project and we expect to receive a written statement that the City of North Platte will take care of maintaining Echo Drive.”

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION ... Over the past century, a desire to recover a deep sense of unity among all believers in Christ has grown. The "ecumenical movement" (from the Greek word meaning the "the whole inhabited world") began among Protestant Christians, but was given great energy in 1920 with a letter from the Orthodox Patriarch of Constantinople, calling for closer dialogue and cooperation among Christians. In 1960, Pope John XXIII invited Protestant and Orthodox observers to the Second Vatican Council. In 1964, the Council's Decree on Ecumenism named these Christians "separated brethren," a huge leap forward from the time of labeling them as "outside the Church." A year later, a new pope, Paul VI, and the Orthodox Patriarch officially nullified the condemnations that walled off East from West for nine hundred years. The pace and optimism of the 1960s has sadly waned, and the signs of progress toward unity are few; yet there are wider agreements on sharing Communion among various Christian denominations, and among Protestants agreements regarding sharing of ecclesiastical life and ministry. Among the success stories of the ecumenical movement are greater cooperation among Christian clergy, a similar Lectionary for Protestants and Catholics, and even experiments in the monastic life and common worship. — James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE ... Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's – justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

PRAYING TO THE ANGELS ... We pray to the angels, for they are given to us as guardians. —St. Ambrose

INVOLVEMENT ... Our job is to get in the game, not keep score. — Anonymous

Pray for our Seminarians: at St. Gregory the Great Seminary, at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, at Mount St. Mary Seminary. Pray for the Priests teaching in the Seminary and the Formation faculty and the staff.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS ... (September)
