Choosing Life ... "A wide spectrum of issues touches on the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. As Pope John Paul II has reminded us: "Where life is involved, the service of charity must be profoundly consistent. It cannot tolerate bias and discrimination, for human life is sacred and inviolable at every stage and in every situation; it is an indivisible good" (The Gospel of Life, no. 87). "Among important issues involving the dignity of human life with which the Church is concerned, abortion necessarily plays a central role. Abortion, the direct killing of an innocent human being, is always gravely immoral (The Gospel of Life, no. 57); its victims are the most vulnerable and defenseless members of the human family. It is imperative that those who are called to serve the least among us give urgent attention and priority to this issue of justice" (2001: US Bishops' Pastoral Plan for Pro-life Activities: A Campaign in Support of Life).

Catechism of the Catholic Church (Second Edition) Part Four – Christian Prayer Section One – Prayer in the Christian Life Chapter One – The Revelation Of Prayer

2616 Prayer to Jesus is answered by him already during his ministry, through signs that anticipate the power of his death and Resurrection: Jesus hears the prayer of faith, expressed in words (the leper, Jairus, the Canaanite woman, the good thief)⁸⁴ or in silence (the bearers of the paralytic, the woman with a hemorrhage who touches his clothes, the tears and ointment of the sinful woman).⁸⁵ The urgent request of the blind men, "Have mercy on us, Son of David" or "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" has been renewed in the traditional prayer to Jesus known as the Jesus Prayer: "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner!"⁸⁶ Healing infirmities or forgiving sins, Jesus always responds to a prayer offered in faith: "Your faith has made you well; go in peace." St. Augustine wonderfully summarizes the three dimensions of Jesus' prayer: "He prays for us as our priest, prays in us as our Head, and is prayed to by us as our God. Therefore, let us acknowledge our voice in him and his in us."⁸⁷

84 Cf. Mk. 1:40-41; 5:36; 7:29 ⁴⁰A leper came to him (and kneeling down) begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean."⁴¹ Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." ... ^{5:36}Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." ... ^{7:29}Then he said to her, "For saying this, you may go. The demon has gone out of your daughter."

85 Cf. Mk. 2:5 ⁵When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Child, your sins are forgiven."

Mk. 5:28 ²⁸She said "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured."

Lk. 7:37-38 ³⁷Now there was a sinful woman in the city who learned that he was at table in the house of the Pharisee. Bringing an alabaster flask of ointment, ³⁸she stood behind him at his feet weeping and began to bathe his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them, and anointed them with the ointment.

86 Mt. 9:27 ²⁷And as Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed him, crying out, "Son of David, have pity on us!" Mk. 10:48 ⁴⁸And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me."

87 St. Augustine, En. in Ps. 85,1:PL 37, 1081; cf. GILH 7. (Not sure how to do this one??? –AP) He prays for us as our own priest; He prays in us, as our head; He receives our prayer, as our God.
