Hearing the Knock ... In his June 2009 encyclical Caritas in Veritate, Pope Benedict XVI reminds the world that poverty will not be eradicated unless we rediscover and protect the sanctity of life at every level. Dismissing the unborn as less than human and allowing abortion impedes the work of social justice. He points out with urgency, "While the poor of the world continue knocking on the doors of the rich, the world of affluence runs the risk of no longer hearing those knocks, on account of a conscience that can no longer distinguish what is human" (n. 75).

Catechism of the Catholic Church (Second Edition) Part Four – Christian Prayer

Section One – Prayer in the Christian Life Chapter One – The Revelation Of Prayer

2619 That is why the Canticle of Mary,<sup>91</sup> the Magnificat (Latin) or Megalynei (Byzantine) is the song both of the Mother of God and of the Church; the song of the Daughter of Zion and of the new People of God; the song of thanksgiving for the fullness of graces poured out in the economy of salvation and the song of the "poor" whose hope is met by the fulfillment of the promises made to our ancestors, "to Abraham and to his posterity forever."

91 Cf. Lk. 1:46-55 <sup>46</sup>And Mary said: "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; <sup>47</sup>my spirit rejoices in God my savior. <sup>48</sup>For he has looked upon his handmaid's lowliness; behold, from now on will all ages call me blessed. <sup>49</sup>The Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name. <sup>50</sup>His mercy is from age to age to those who fear him. <sup>51</sup>He has shown might with his arm, dispersed the arrogant of mind and heart. <sup>52</sup>He has thrown down the rulers from their thrones but lifted up the lowly. <sup>53</sup>The hungry he has filled with good things; the rich he has sent away empty. <sup>54</sup>He has helped Israel his servant, remembering his mercy, <sup>55</sup>according to his promise to our fathers, to Abraham and to his descendants forever."

In Brief

2620 Jesus' filial prayer is the perfect model of prayer in the New Testament. Often done in solitude and in secret, the prayer of Jesus involves a loving adherence to the will of the Father even to the Cross and an absolute confidence in being heard.

2621 In his teaching, Jesus teaches his disciples to pray with a purified heart, with lively and persevering faith, with filial boldness. He calls them to vigilance and invites them to present their petitions to God in his name. Jesus Christ himself answers prayers addressed to him.

2622 The prayers of the Virgin Mary, in her Fiat and Magnificat, are characterized by the generous offering of her whole being in faith.

Pray for our Seminarians: at St. Gregory the Great Seminary, Mount St. Mary Seminary, St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, and the North American College in Rome.

Pray for our Religious Sisters: Sr. Philomena of Our Lady of Sorrows, Novice, of Auburn, KS, at the Sisters of the Carmel of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, and Sr. Maria Theresa Vi Nguyen, of Vietnam, who took her first vows in June of 2020 at the Sisters of Mary, Queen of Mercy.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS ... (August) Intention for evangelization - The Church: Let us pray for the Church, that She may receive from the Holy Spirit the grace and strength to reform herself in the light of the Gospel.
