Catholic Easter Prayer
 Lord, the Resurrection of Your Son, has given us new life and renewed hope. Help us to live as new people, in pursuit of the Christian ideal. Grant us the wisdom to know what we must do, the will to want to do it, the courage to undertake it, the perseverance to continue to do it, and the strength to complete it. Amen.

Do you have a family member who recently passed away, that you would like to be listed in the Prayer of the Faithful and in the bulletin? Please let Fr. Karl know. Thanks.

Each day within the eight-day celebration of the Easter octave is a solemnity, the Church's highest class of feast. (Sundays throughout the year retain a special liturgical character, irrespective of whether they are solemnities, because of their intimate relationship with Easter.) This means Catholics must shift their thinking when it comes to the usual Friday penance. Whereas the Church requires Catholics to abstain from meat, fast, or substitute some other penance on Fridays for almost the entire year, all of these practices are contrary to Church discipline when it comes to the celebratory spirit of the Easter octave!
After a Lent full of redemptive suffering, we should be ready to feast for eight straight days, as is proper for the Easter octave. And if you want to get your children more interested in God and the Church, eight consecutive days of special meals, desserts, movies (for example, Jesus of Nazareth), etc. are guaranteed to foster their favorable attention. Participating in Mass on at least one day from Easter Monday through Easter Saturday is highly recommended, or at least reading the daily Mass readings at your festive family meals. And the Lenten-Easter journey can also demonstrate that the Church's challenging moral teachings are not infringements on our freedom, but rather doctrines that liberate through genuine, disciplined love when patiently and joyfully embraced.

Pope Francis' Intention for April:

Health Care Workers

We pray for health care workers who serve the sick and the elderly, especially in the poorest countries; may they be adequately supported by governments and local communities.

BUT NOW THAT THE SAVIOR HAS RAISED HIS BODY, DEATH IS NO LONGER TERRIBLE, BUT ALL THOSE WHO BELIEVE IN CHRIST TREAD IT UNDERFOOT AS NOTHING, AND PREFER TO DIE RATHER THAN TO DENY THEIR FAITH IN CHRIST, KNOWING FULL WELL THAT WHEN THEY DIE THEY DO NOT PERISH, BUT LIVE INDEED, AND BECOME INCORRUPTIBLE THROUGH THE RESURRECTION.
 + SAINT ATHANASIUS THE GREAT +
