A priest was walking along the corridor of the parochial school near the preschool wing when a group of little ones were trotting by on the way to the cafeteria. One little lad of about three or four stopped and looked at him in his clerical clothes and asked “Why do you dress funny?” He told him he was a priest and this is the uniform priests wear. Then the boy pointed to the priest’s plastic collar tab and asked, “Do you have an owie?” The priest was perplexed until he realized that to him the collar tab looked like a band-aid. So the priest took it out and handed it to the boy to show him. On the back of the tab are raised letters giving the name of the manufacturer. The little guy felt the letters, and the priest asked, “Do you know what those words say?” “Yes I do,” said the lad who was not old enough to read. Peering intently at the letters he said, “Kills ticks and fleas up to six months!”

Installation: When a new pastor begins an assignment, there is, in some format, an installation—usually by the local dean. Fr. Rand's installation (and welcoming) is being planned, according to the Dean's schedule, for some time in August. More information will follow.

Seven Sisters Apostolate: Thank you to Joan Ryland, Seven Sister Anchoress, for setting up renewals of commitment to pray for the parish pastor, and for the post get-together fellowship. The Seven Sisters are becoming, since its beginning several years ago, a very appreciated part of parish life, as it spreads throughout the world. Led by the Holy Spirit, these women who take up the power of prayer are greatly appreciated by the priests and bishops for whom they pray.

The story is told of a wise pastor who went to get a haircut. The barber, who also happened to be a parishioner, took the opportunity to tell the pastor all the reasons why the barber didn't financially support the parish. "I don't think we should have to give money to God. My need to give will only come when there is a need to give in my opinion." The pastor listened carefully and after his haircut he handed the barber $1 for the $10 haircut, saying, "I like to give what my heart tells me – just whatever I have in my pocket at the time." "Father," the barber protested, "I can't pay my rent, take care of my expenses and run my business successfully if everyone would do that." "Neither can God," the pastor replied.

Charity & Stewardship Appeal: The Charity and Stewardship Appeal envelopes for our Diocese that were not previously picked up have been mailed out to registered households in our parish. Please prayerfully consider what you can give to help the various projects funded through it in our diocese. It additionally benefits our parish, as we receive 80%, due to our educational support of Catholic elementary and high school education. Return the card with any gift or pledge to the parish. To date, we have received $12,700.00 toward our goal of $10,000.00. Thanks to all who have already made a pledge or gift for the coming year.

Pope Francis: Abortion is a Betrayal of our Vocation!: "To extinguish life voluntarily in its budding is, in any case, a betrayal of our vocation, in addition to the pact that binds the generations among themselves, a pact that enables us to look ahead with hope. Where there is life, there is hope! However, if life itself is violated in its beginning, what remains is no longer the grateful and amazed reception of the gift, but rather a cold calculation of that we can dispose of. Then life is also reduced to a good of consumption, to be used for ourselves and for others, or discarded. How tragic this vision is, unfortunately, widespread and rooted, and how much suffering it causes the weakest of our brothers!" - Holy Father Praises Work of Italian Pro-Life Movement, 41st National Pro-Life Day in Italy, to be held Sunday, February 3, 2019

Prayer Intentions: Prayer intentions will remain in the bulletin for three weeks.
